

COOKIE POLICY

What are cookies?

We, Beyond-Legal LLC, like most other professional service providers, use cookies to uniquely distinguish you from other users of our website. By doing this we can offer you a better experience.

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your computer by websites that you visit. They are widely used to make websites work more efficiently, as well as to provide information to the owner of the site.

How we use cookies?

We use different 3rd party cookies to make our website better. We use them to understand how visitors use and interact with our website. Amongst other things, the cookies we use allow us to calculate how many visitors we have – anonymously, of course – and how long they stay on our site.

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to monitor visits to our website. The information generated by the cookie about your use of the website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google. For further information about the use of these cookies by Google click here.

How do I turn cookies off?

Most browsers accept cookies automatically, but you can alter the settings of your browser to erase cookies or prevent automatic acceptance if you prefer. Generally, you have the option to accept all cookies, to be notified when a cookie is issued or reject all cookies. Visit the 'options' or 'preferences' menu on your browser to change settings. You can find out more about how to switch off cookies here.

User agreement

By continuing to use our site, you agree to the placement of cookies on your device. If you choose not to receive our cookies, we cannot guarantee that your experience will be as fulfilling as it would otherwise be.

Changes

We may need to update this policy in the future. We encourage you to review it regularly. This policy was last updated on 04/07/2019.
